

MISCELLANEOUS TEXT (FEC Form 99)

PAGE 1 / 1

Explanation and response to the Commission's review of the April Quarterly Report 2014

Art Favre contribution on 1/31/14 for $2,600: The donor designated the second contribution of $2,600 to the general and a clerical error was made in reporting both as primary. This is corrected in the amended report.

RECEIVED
SECRETARY OF THE SENATE
PUBLIC RECORDS

14 JUN 25 AM 11:31

R.B. Flowers and R.B. Flowers, Jr. are father and son. The father donated $1,000 and the son donated $2,600. All are within the allowable limit.

Michael E. Johnson and Michael E. Johnson, Jr. are father and son. The father donated $1,000 and the son donated $2,000. All are within the allowable limits.

Leslie B. Lampton and Leslie B. Lampton, III are father and son. They donated $1,600 each on 1/31/14. Both are within the allowable limits.

Jame C. Robertson (age 90), Jim Robertson (age 51) and James C. Robertson, III (age 28) are grandfather, son and grandson. All of their contributions are within the allowable limits.

Glenn L. McCullough, Jr. contributed $900 over his allowable limit on 3/31/14. He has been issued a refund for the excess.

Travis H. Satterfield contributed $400 over his allowable limit on 3/31/14. He has been issued a refund for the excess.

N.B. Scheder's two contributions on 3/21/14 for $2,600 each: The donor designated the second contribution on that date to the general and a clerical error was made in reporting both as primary. This is corrected in the amended report.

Thomas Hunt Shipman's contribution on 1/31/14 for $1,000: The donor designated this $1,000 to the general election and a clerical error was made in reporting it to the primary. This has been corrected in the amended report.

Shelby F. Thames and Mrs. S.F. Thames are husband and wife. They each contributed $2,600 on 1/31/14 and were within the allowable limits.

Telapex, Inc PAC designated the $2500 on 1/31/14 to the general and we erroneously reported it as primary. A similar error was made on the American Dental PAC's contribution for $1,500 on 3/12/14, ENPAC's contribution of $2,500 on 2/28/14, Novartis Corporation PAC's contribution of $1,500 on 3/31/14, Producer's Rice Mill, Inc. PAC's contribution of $2,000 on 3/10/14, and Southeastern Lumber Mfg PAC's contribution of $1,000 on 2/21/14. These have been corrected in the amended report.

Pickering For Congress over-contributed by $1,750.00 on 1/31/14. They have been issued a refund for the excess.

John McPherson made an in-kind contribution of $553.34 in addition to his cash contributions totaling $2,600. The excess has been refunded to him.

Memo entries have been added to report the vendor (if over $200 paid to this vendor) involved for all travel and other expense reimbursements where the individual being reimbursed has received $500 or more.

14020440377
14020434917